

Day 6

Assignment

Note: These assignments are done by using single dimension character array.

1. Write a program to test whether a word is palindrome or not.
2. Write a program to convert a lowercase string into uppercase.
3. Write a program to enter any string and print it in reverse order.
4. Write a program to read in a string and print the no. of word in that string.
5. Write a program to find the length of string.
6. Write a program to copy a string in another string.
7. Write a program to concatenate a string to another string.
8. Write a program to compare two strings.
9. Write a program to counts the number of occurrence of particular character say 'c' in a line of text.
10. Write a program that will read a line of text containing more than four words and replace all the blank spaces with an underscore (_).